Living and Non-Living

Living things grow, take in nutrients, and reproduce (which means to create more living things).
Non-living things don't grow, they don't need any food, and they don't reproduce. Look around you. Draw two living and two non-living things that you see. Is a wolf living or non-living?

Living	Non-Living